CATCH THE FIRE MINISTRIES FIGHTING FUND

You will be aware that in December 2004, Catch the Fire Ministries Inc, Pastor Danny Nalliah and Pastor Daniel Scot were found to have breached the Victorian Racial & Religious Tolerance Act because of comments made in a seminar, newsletter and website article concerning Islam. On 22 June 2005 Catch the Fire Ministries and Pastors Danny Nalliah and Daniel Scot were ordered to make a public apology in newspapers and on the CTFM website, and to promise never again to repeat similar statements anywhere in Australia.

Catch the Fire Ministries, Pastor Danny Nalliah and Pastor Daniel Scot are appealing the decision to the Supreme Court. A team of lawyers has been assembled to conduct the Appeal and your help is sought. It will require significant funds in order to take a stand at a critical turning point in Australia for religious freedom.

We urge you to be part of this campaign and to support us financially. A Fighting Fund has been set up and a trust account has been established with our lawyers, Moores Legal, to receive donations. Please help us by donating generously.
